It will now be much easier to remember the time and place of our Sunday services - 10.30am Holy Trinity each week.

Summer Barbecue

Do come along and enjoy some good food and fellowship on Saturday 16th August from 3pm. If you haven't signed up at the back of the church please contact Dorothy on 01382 370367 or email her at dorothymcfawns@sky.com to ensure we order enough sausages!

Sunday Evening Sing-alongs:

These informal services of praise and prayer were held on two Sundays in July and one at the beginning of August. Lots of favourite hymns were chosen and some new ones introduced. Thanks to Derek, Fiona and Catherine for the organisation.

Holy Trinity website:

Ken and Enza Gibson have now taken over the website and given it an exciting new look.

This month there is an interesting addition from 1937. It is an extract taken from the Holy Trinity August magazine of that year, written by the Rector, The Revd. J.D. Bisset.

Do look out for it if you have access to the internet. The address is www.holytrinitymonifieth.org the item can be found on the news page if you scroll down past the news of the barbecue and the painting of the church.

The vestry have expressed their thanks to Frank for his work on the website. He is very happy to pass it on having enjoyed his work as webmaster for more than 10 years.
