Thoughts for the Week ahead:

"Love without insight is blind, frustrating to the lover and the beloved alike. Wisdom without compassion operates only in the realm of theory."
Aelred Graham

"The power of God's reign is not exhibitionistic. It is self-effacing, self-concealing. That power, like the leaven buried inside the mass of dough, is a fermentative power in the depth of humanity, in the womb of God's creation. It is the power of compassion. It is the power of the Cross."
Choan-Seng Song
