We are a small church with a warm welcome. ## Future Events

Tuesday 12 March 2pm: As a new venture this Lent the three churches in the town are joining together to have a Lent Study Course. This will be hosted by St. Bride's Church. We are using material produced by Churches Together in Britain and Ireland entitled 'The Mystery of God'. The time of 2pm is a compromise to fit in with many busy schedules. Do try and attend. If you cannot attend all the materials are available on-line on the CTBI web site.

Sunday 31 March: Along with this day being Mothering Sunday it is also the 30th Anniversary of Rev Kenneth's Ordination to the Priesthood. To mark the event there will be a Buffet Lunch in the hall after the morning service provided by Rev Kenneth & Enza. All are invited to attend.

Mission to Seafarers:

For a number of years some of our folk have been knitting for this charity. If you would like to join in then patterns and wool are available from Fiona Buchan.

Lenten Triplets:

All good things come in threes. During Lent we are called to engage in self-denial, prayer and acts of charity. As we follow Jesus through the desert of our temptations, we invited to examine our attitudes to possessions, power and prestige. We do so by reflecting on our own appetites, ambitions and pride.
